Diplomacy in Action: U.S. Foreign Policy in Ireland and Northern Ireland

Who: Mr. Jason Hackworth
Desk Officer for Ireland and Northern Ireland
Office of Western European Affairs in the Bureau of European & Eurasian Affairs
U.S. Department of State
What: U.S. Foreign Policy Forum
Where: Wilmington Room at the Ed Oliver Golf Course
800 DuPont Road
Wilmington, DE 19807
When: Thursday, November 18, 2010 7:00 pm

Wilmington, DE – People to People International - Delaware, in partnership with World Trade Center Delaware, will be hosting Mr. Jason Hackworth for a U.S. Foreign Policy Forum, on November 18, 2010.

Join People to People International – Delaware Chapter and WTC Delaware for an exchange of views between Mr. Jack Hackworth and the public on the US Foreign Policy in Ireland and Northern Ireland.

Jason Hackworth is currently the Desk Officer for Ireland and Northern Ireland, primarily working on the formulation and implementation of U.S. policy toward and bilateral relationships with Ireland and Northern Ireland. A consular officer by trade, Mr. Hackworth has served overseas in the U.S. Consulate General in Florence, Italy; the U.S. Embassy in Tokyo, Japan; and most recently in the U.S. Embassy in Port Louis, Mauritius. Mr. Hackworth graduated from Denison University with a Bachelor of Arts in creative writing in 2001 and joined the Foreign Service in 2003.

The objective of the Foreign Policy Town Meetings is to provide an opportunity for the exchange of views between the U.S. Department of State and the American public. This is an opportunity for participants to be heard by Senior U.S. policy-makers and have their views carried back to Washington. The format of the Forum will consist of a 30-minute address followed by a question and answer period
