Additionally, learn how you can volunteer abroad and become an advocate for global social change.

Have you ever wondered what it would be like to support building efforts in rural Nepal, host a radio show in Cambodia, or launch an HIV/AIDS awareness campaign in India?

Edge of Seven is a nonprofit organization that fuses international travel with service, creating opportunities for personal and global development. Their mission is to generate awareness and volunteer support for projects that invest in education, health, and economic opportunity for girls in developing countries. Edge of 7 seeks to empower girls by supporting initiatives that are locally driven, community focused, and sustainable. It is their goal to make a measurable difference in the areas that they serve through a chain of dedicated volunteers over time.

Edge of Seven, in name and in spirit, offers volunteers the unique opportunity to work closely with people who face different obstacles in life, possess different histories, and hold different perspectives on our world.

The program will feature a 1 hour slideshow presentation with a question and answer session to follow as well as refreshments following the program and a chance to meet with the speaker.

If you are interested in an interview with the speaker please contact Sean Kathleen Curran at 302-656-7905 or scurran@wtcde.com.
