

CASE STUDY OF AFRICAN MIGRATION

Johannesburg, South Africa

Please join People to People Delaware via Zoom to learn about internal migration in Sub Saharan Africa!!

This event will focus on African migrants that settle in Johannesburg South Africa. In addition to this, the session will highlight migration issues for migrants from source countries, migrant experiences in transit to host nations and the challenges migrants experience in host countries.

WHEN: April 20, 2022 from 7pm to 8pm

Please register via this link :

<https://tinyurl.com/ptpde>

ZOOM meeting details will be shared prior to the start of the program

About The Speaker

David Monda teaches Political Science, American Government and International Affairs at City University of New York - John Jay. His doctoral training is situated at the intersection of Comparative Politics and International Relations with an emphasis on international migration and foreign policy. His research interests center on Sub Saharan Africa, post Soviet states, transnational migrant communities, securitization of narratives around terrorism, comparative electoral politics, and foreign policies of the Global South.

PTPI was founded by President Dwight D. Eisenhower and is dedicated to the principle of "Peace Through Understanding"

Website: www.ptpde.org
Email: info@ptpde.org

Follow us on Facebook
facebook.com/PTPDelaware